France and Britain Paired Off
Against Wilson On Two Most Important Points of Peace Pact

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Jan. 10.—Messages from Paris indicate that Clemenceau and Lloyd George scored a great success on the question of the freedom of the seas. Little is likely to be said on this subject when the peace conference assembles. The Spanish Moroccan question is also declared to be settled to the satisfaction of England and France.

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS (Thursday), Jan. 9.—It is probable there will be 80 delegates at the peace conference if the program presented today to the delegates by the French government is approved by the supreme war council.

WOUNDED MEN FILL TRANSPORT

(By Associated Press.)
NEWPORT NEWS, Jan. 10.—The transport Madawaska today landed 2200 troops. Almost every man had been gassed or wounded and many had been cited for bravery and gallant conduct.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Departure from France of the transports Huron, Belgic and Aetna with 6000 troops, including sick and wounded, was announced today by the war department.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The British transport Ulua arrived today from Brest with 1000 American troops.

BRITISH VESSEL
SUNK BY MINE
ENGLISH COAST

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Jan. 10.—The British steamer Northumbria was sunk by a mine off Middlesbrough Thursday and it is believed that most of the crew were lost. A boat with two survivors and four dead were washed ashore at Newton Abbot. Four boats which left the ship with survivors are missing.

PROSECUTION OF EX-KAISER URGED

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON (Thursday), Jan. 10.—Proceedings against the former German emperor are advised in a special report by the sub-committee of the commission charged with inquiring into violations of the laws of war.

WOMEN SEATED IN REPUBLICAN
NAT. COMMITTEE

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Two women occupied seats in the Republican national committee today for the first time in history. They were admitted on proxies and enjoyed all the rights of regular members. They are Mrs. Josephine Preston, Washington, and Miss Mary Hay, New York.

It might be well to add a pinch of salt to the news from Berlin.

BRITISH MEMBERS OF THE PEACE CONFERENCE

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Jan. 10.—Premier Lloyd George, Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, Arthur Balfour, secretary of foreign affairs, and George Barnes, privy councillor, have been appointed plenipotentiaries to the peace congress by the British cabinet, according to the Express.

MARKET DIRECTOR
MAY LOSE OFFICE

(By Associated Press.)
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 10.—Abolition of the office of state market director by the legislature is proposed by a bill introduced in the assembly today by Edwin Baker of Los Angeles. Baker said the aims for which the office was created had no been realized.

CALIFORNIA VOTE ON PROHIBITION

(By Associated Press.)
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 10.—Ratification of the proposed federal prohibition amendment was recommended to the assembly of the California legislature today by its federal relations committee by a vote of five to two. The senate committee made a similar recommendation last night after a joint public hearing. Assembly rules prevent a final vote today. A final vote in the senate is expected late today.

25,000 MEN
TAKEN OFF
NAVY LIST

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—A temporary naval force of 25,000 enlisted men for the year beginning July 1 was decided today by the house naval sub-committee in beginning the work of framing the naval appropriation bill. This force is 25,000 short of the strength Secretary Daniels requested.

THURINGIA WANTS TO BE REPUBLIC

(By Associated Press.)
ERFURT, Germany (Thursday), Jan. 10.—Formation of a separate Thuringian republic with Erfurt for the capital is demanded in resolutions adopted at a meeting of all Thuringian chambers of commerce, handicraft, agricultural and industrial unions.

CAUSE OF DELAY IN ARMY MAIL

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Blame for delays in the transmission of mail to soldiers overseas is placed on the war department by Second Assistant Attorney General Praeger in testifying before the senate post-office committee. Most of the trouble, he said, was due to carelessness on the part of military officials and the war department's failure to cooperate with the postal authorities.

PRESIDENT SIGNS
BILL IN FRANCE

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Notice of the signing by the president in France of the first bill sent to the White House by congress after the president's departure was cabled to Secretary Tumulty. This was the measure authorizing the transportation home of workers leaving the government service.

American Ace
Gets 26 Planes

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Captain Rickenbacker has been officially credited with 26 airplanes and is America's premier ace.

The official report received by the war department showed that there were 63 aces in the American army when the war ended.

MUST WAIT ON BRITISH DELEGATES

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, Jan. 10.—Conversations which will lay the foundation of the actual peace congress are about to start. Suggestions had been made that French and American delegates go ahead awaiting the arrival of the British plenipotentiaries Saturday but Wilson vetoed this.

ARGENTINA RIOTS
STOP BUSINESS
IN THAT COUNTRY

(By Associated Press.)
BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 10.—A general strike was declared throughout Argentina at midnight last night.

Serious disorders followed a funeral yesterday of five persons killed in Tuesday's disturbances. Thousands of strikers burned a passenger train and tore up the tracks, paralyzing traffic on the Transandinian line. Later they burned a Catholic church and a girls' school adjoining, throwing images into the street and leaving 400 girls shelterless.

IRISH ASSEMBLY
DATE IS DELAYED

(By Associated Press.)
DUBLIN, Jan. 10.—A constituent assembly, the date of which has not been fixed, will determine the terms of a constitution for Ireland. Sinn Fein plans for an assembly have been delayed because thirty-four of those recently elected to British parliament are in jail.

POLES RECAPTURE
TEUTON VILLAGE

(By Associated Press.)
BERLIN (Wednesday), Jan. 8.—It is reported that Polish forces have recaptured the village of Nakel and that the city of Bromberg, east of Nakel is threatened. German troops recaptured the village of Kolmar, farther west.

SANGUINARY REPRISALS
FROM THE SPARTICANS TO RECOVER CONTROL

(By Associated Press.)
COPENHAGEN, Jan. 10.—Spartan, according to a Berlin correspondent of the Tidende, have occupied one of the waterworks of Berlin and now are attempting to seize the cattle market with the object of stopping their adversaries supply of meat. Government forces have been reinforced with many machine guns.

(By Associated Press.)
AMSTERDAM (Thursday), Jan. 10.—Reports that Liebknecht has proclaimed a new government in Germany are contradicted by the Frankfurter Zeitung which declares the Spartans have broken relations with Liebknecht and his independent Socialists.

INNER CITY OF BERLIN
HELD BY GOVERNMENT

(By Associated Press.)
BERLIN, Jan. 10.—It is estimated that 200 persons were killed in Berlin fighting since Monday.

(By Associated Press.)
BERLIN (Thursday), Jan. 9.—With the definite breaking of negotiations between the government on one side and the independent Socialists and Spartans on the other, a renewal of the sanguinary conflict for control of the situation seems unavoidable.

BRITISH PROPAGANDA AGAINST PEACE LEAGUE

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Edmund Von Mack, former Harvard lecturer, for testifying today before the senate committee on investigation of the German propaganda to deny German activities, asserted that the British government had started a propaganda campaign against Wilson's advocacy of a league of nations.
